Grandville Tax Planner Earns Certified Tax Coach Designation

Grandville, MI – on June 19, 2020 Jill Schneider announced today that she is one of just over 700 tax professionals who has completed the American Institute for Certified Tax Planners' training academy leading to the Certified Tax Coach designation.

“Taxpayers who really want to beat the IRS can’t wait for their accountant to work magic with a stack of receipts on April 15,” says Schneider “They need a plan for taking advantage of every deduction, credit, loophole, and strategy allowed.”

“Traditional tax professionals focus on putting the right numbers in the right boxes on the right forms,” says Dominique Molina, a San Diego-based CPA, and Director of the American Institute for Certified Tax Planners. “Our program is different,” she continues. “We don’t just help our client’s record history. We help them write it, with a complete menu of advanced tax-planning concepts and strategies.”

The AICTP program focuses on court-tested, IRS-approved strategies for minimizing Alternative Minimum Tax, maximizing deductions from real estate and passive activities, maximizing retirement savings, and similarly powerful strategies. As taxes rise to cover increased government spending, this sort of proactive planning will become even more important in the future.

To earn the designation Jill Schneider completed an intense five-day online training program. She has also agreed to abide by the AICTP Code of Ethics and complete 24 hours of tax-planning continuing education each year.
